APCN -HUMANITARIAN AWARDS:

About APCN Humanitarian Awards:

Aid People Change Naija Humanitarian Awards or commonly called “APCN Humanitarian Awards”, is designed to promote the distinct rich Humanitarian award worldwide, through music, Fashion, Films, Organizations etc, engaging millions of fans by propelling humanitarians to glorious pinnacles beyond the borders of Africa.

Welcome aboard, humanitarian heroes. The award was founded in 11/12/2008 by Aid People Change Nigeria Charity and Orphanage Organisation also known as Aid People Change Naija Charity Organisation in Benin City (Edo State)

Our mission is to promote humanitarian issues and inspire others. Winning person profile will become our showcase based on their positive impact on vulnerable people, countries affected with natural disaster.

We strive to give recognition to people, who work and dedicate his/her life for the betterment of humanity. He/she could be anyone from any kind of profession, from all age, and from any parts of the world. May it be an ordinary man/female, Entertainer, Public figures or a nation leader. We value hard works laboured for peace and humanity, reaching hunger souls crying for help

Ceremonies:

The first award ceremony was held in 2008, at Lions International Club event centre at Oredo local Government, Benin City (Edo state) The award was sponsored by Guinness Nigeria Plc and presented by Ambassador, Mrs Becky Edionewe (former secretary of Benin City zone to Nigeria Red Cross) and Nigeria music legend Professor sir Victor Uwaifo.

In 2019, the 11th edition was held in Dublin, Ireland and APCN Humanitarian Awards was rated as one of the Nigeria and Ireland largest humanitarian award by South Dublin lord mayor and Nigeria Vanguard Newspaper.
